ABOUT THE DOMAINE

Adelphi is regarded as the ultimate independent Single Malt Scotch Whisky bottler in the world. Established in 1826 on the banks of the river Clyde in what is now the heart of Glasgow, the independent Adelphi Distillery adheres to strict standards of excellence, purity and rigour. Only the very best single malt casks available are selected under the meticulous scrutiny of a panel of "noses" chaired by celebrated whisky authority Charles MacLean. Only the very best barrels are chosen from the distilleries. All whiskies are bottled straight from the cask without the addition of artificial colouring and without chill-filtration.

DISTILLATION

Maclean's Nose, a new blended Scotch whisky from Adelphi, expertly crafted to have a west coast character with the blend containing a high proportion of malt and sherry casks. Named MacLean's Nose due to the close relationship that Adelphi and Ardnamurchan have with Charlie 'The Nose' MacLean along with the beautiful landmark located on the south coast of the Ardnamurchan Peninsula, named MacLean's Nose. Bottled at 46% ABV, un chilled filtered and at natural colour along with an impressive label which has been printed on crushed barley paper made from a byproduct of whisky production.

TASTING NOTES

A wonderful new blended whisky from Adelphi this opens up with an exciting nose of burnt citrus peel, sea salt, bonfire, nectarine syrup, lime marmalade, hay bales, coal bunker and oily shed. The equally complex palate offers flavours of puffed rice, homemade rice pudding and white chocolate. Bright citrus lime pickle, with chantilly cream and Viennetta ice cream leads to an indulgent and balanced finish with a whiff of smoke.
