ABOUT THE DOMAINE

Adelphi is regarded as the ultimate independent Single Malt Scotch Whisky bottler in the world. Established in 1826 on the banks of the river Clyde in what is now the heart of Glasgow, the independent Adelphi Distillery adheres to strict standards of excellence, purity and rigour. Only the very best single malt casks available are selected under the meticulous scrutiny of a panel of “noses” chaired by celebrated whisky authority Charles MacLean. Only the very best barrels are chosen from the distilleries. All whiskies are bottled straight from the cask without the addition of artificial colouring and without chill-filtration.

DISTILATION

A blend of 4 grains combined with a high malt content, mainly from distilleries located in Speyside and on Islay. The blend is kept in a solera, which is topped up with the same recipe every time a batch is bottled.

TASTING NOTES

On the nose, the aroma is a pleasing fusion of salty peat and eatery fruitiness. The palate takes on a coastal quality with an all-round nuttiness and a medium-body. The finish is long with beach bonfire notes and some pear-drop flavours.
