ABOUT THE DOMAINE

Wine producers of the highest quality located in Gaiole in Chianti, Siena, the Capannelle estate extends over 20 hectares (16 hectares of vines) and produces approximately 80.000 bottles of wine a year. The history of Capannelle wine production dates back to 1974, when Raffaele Rossetti, a Roman businessman, purchased the 16th century farmhouse. Extensive renovations and restoration have resulted in a unique luxury property producing exceptional wines. Today, it is owned by James B. Sherwood, founder and shareholder of the Orient – Express Hotels LTD.

WINEMAKING

Fermentation on the skins in truncated cone-shaped oak vats, with 15-20 days of maceration. Aged in French barriques for 24 months.

TASTING NOTES

Deep, dark ruby colour. Elegant and refined, with fresh notes of red and black berries, followed by sweet spices and an underlying, balsamic touch. On the palate: full bodied and silky soft, with an elegant, fruity core and a long lingering, pleasantly dry finish. Great ageing potential. Suggested food pairings: strongly-flavoured meats, roasted wild fowl, game, hard cheeses.
