ABOUT THE DOMAINE

Wine producers of the highest quality located in Gaiole in Chianti, Siena, the Capannelle estate extends over 20 hectares (16 hectares of vines) and produces approximately 80.000 bottles of wine a year. The history of Capannelle wine production dates back to 1974, when Raffaele Rossetti, a Roman businessman, purchased the 16th century farmhouse. Extensive renovations and restoration have resulted in a unique luxury property producing exceptional wines. Today, it is owned by James B. Sherwood, founder and shareholder of the Orient – Express Hotels LTD.

WINEMAKING

Temperature controlled inox vat. 18 months in barrique.

TASTING NOTES

Bright pale pink with a golden rim. Very intense on the nose: fresh fruit aromas, strawberry and pear, interwoven with floral aromas, rose petals in particular. Food pairing; semi-soft cheese, fish recipes, raw fish, sushi and oysters. But try it also with rabbit or pizza or appetizers. Serve cold.
