ABOUT THE DOMAINE

Veteran winemaker David Traeger began his life in the Australian wine industry in 1973. After working as a winemaker for both major and smaller wine companies, in 1986, he established his namesake wine business. After selling his eponymous "David Traeger" brand, he has re-established himself as a small independent winemaker. His aim is to produce limited volumes of elegant and distinctive wines, working with grapes from vineyards that attain the finest fruit character.

WINEMAKING

Aged in small oak casks (Nevers, Alliers and American) for 12 months.

TASTING NOTES

Brick red colour. Aromas of leather and spice with truffles, cigar box, and freshly polished furniture. A medium palate weight with sour cherry flavours. A Heathcote Shiraz at maturity, showing some subtlety and development having a balance of flavours and extraction to enable the wine to be enjoyed with meats and dishes of a lighter style, or with fine cheese.
